

Closing toasts

Toasts, quotes and jokes can spice up any wedding speech, and give you that extra touch of sincerity, loyalty, and humor. Besides...what else would the Bride and Groom expect from Yours Truly besides a little bit of your personality added to their Wedding Day?

This is the best day both your worlds have ever seen...
Here's to all your tomorrow's being even better!

As you love today, may it deepen for all of the tomorrow's yet to come!

To your very good health and the health of your family,
and a measure of luck that we all need along the way!

May you both live as long as you want,
And never want as long as you live.

Here's to the bride that is to be,
Here's to the groom she'll wed,
May all their troubles be light as bubbles
Or the feathers that make up their bed!

I have known many,
Liked not a few,
Loved only one
I toast to you!

Let's drink to love, which is nothing -- unless it's divided by two.

"Drink to me only with thine eyes,
And I will pledge with mine;
Or leave a kiss within the cup,
And I'll not look for wine."
- Ben Jonson

To my Bride: She knows all about me and loves me just the same.

To my Groom: He knows all about me and loves me just the same.

Here's to the husband
And here's to the wife
May they be lovers
The rest of their life.

Never above you. Never below you. Always beside you.

May all your troubles be less
And all your blessings be more
And nothing but happiness
Come through your door.

May your home always be too small to hold all of your friends.

May your Love be modern enough to survive the times
and old fashioned enough to last forever.

May your wedding days be few and your anniversaries many.

Here's to lying, cheating, and stealing and drinking
May you lie only to your enemies
Cheat only death
Steal only each other's hearts
And drink deeply of each other's love.

A toast to love and laughter and happily ever after!

May your love be as endless as your wedding rings.

Here's to the Groom with a Bride so fair, Here's to the Bride with a Groom so rare!

Let us toast the health of the bride
Let us toast the health of the groom,
Let us toast the person that tied,
Let us toast every guest in the room.

May you have enough happiness to keep you sweet,
Enough trials to keep you strong,
Enough sorrow to keep you human,
Enough hope to keep you happy,
Enough failure to keep you humble,
Enough success to keep you eager,
Enough friends to give you comfort,
Enough faith and courage in yourself your business, and your country to banish depression,
Enough wealth to meet your needs,
Enough determination to make each day a better day than yesterday.

Love does not consist of gazing at each other,

But in looking outward together in the same direction.

To the man who has conquered the Bride's heart, and her mother's.

Down the hatch, to a striking match!

May your hands be forever clasped in friendship
And your hearts joined forever in love.

To my wife, my bride and joy.

To the newlyweds: May "for better or worse" be far better than worse.

To our guests: May the friends of our youth be the Companions of our old age.

To our guests: May our home always be too small to hold all our friends.

Grow old along with me!
The best is yet to be.

May the two of you grow old on one pillow.

Here's to the Bride and Groom:
May their joys be as bright as the morning,
And their sorrows but shadows that fade in the sunlight of love.

Here's to my mother-in-law's daughter,
Here's to her father-in-law's son,
And here's to the vows we've just taken,
And the life we've just begun.

Here's to you both,
A beautiful pair,
On the birthday of your love affair.

Love is blind, but marriage restores its sight.

A health to you,
A wealth to you,
And the best that life can give to you.
May fortune still be kind to you.
And happiness be true to you,
And life be long and good to you,
Is the toast of all your friends to you.

May we all meet on many more happy occasions.

Here's a health to all those that we love,
Here's a health to all those that love us,
Here's a health to all those that love them
that love those
that love them
that love those
that love us.

May you have warm words on a cold evening,
A full moon on a dark night,
And the road downhill all the way to your door.

As you slide down the banister of life,
May the splinters never point the wrong way.

May you be poor in misfortune,
Rich in blessings,
Slow to make enemies,
And quick to make friends.

May thy life be long and happy,
Thy cares and sorrows few;
And the many friends around thee
Prove faithful, fond and true.

May your love always last
and your happiness always be assured.

Merry meet and merry part
I drink to thee with all my heart!

May the love you share forever remain as beautiful
as the bride looks today!

May the love you feel today
be present always, forever and a day.

Today I married my best friend.

For better or for worse, but never for granted.
